

Greetings!

The 1st May saw the launch of UK Youth's new publication 'the Source' a new monthly online resource packed with information, features updates and more. The second edition of the Source will prove equally that it is a vital read for anyone working with young people.

The first issue of the Source proved to be really popular with our readers. Why not forward this email on to your colleagues so that they can enjoy the Source too?

Here is just some of the feedback we have received so far on the Source.

- I think this is brilliant!
- It looks really good. I am sure we will be interested in putting in an article or two!
- Cracking edition - A right riveting read.
- It is really quite good. Thanks for sending it on
- It's great

Also in this month's the Source there will be our popular favorites including:

- special features
- training and
- latest publications

and these will be joined by:

- specialist pages that link direct through to our partners
- recruitment opportunities
- young voices and
- updates on all the latest developments.

---

If you would like to feature your club, organisation, project or any work that you do with young people in the Source the please do get in touch with our editor.

Alan Rogers, Editor, the Source
