

SHAP is a member of the V6 Voluntary Sector Consortium which provides a range of learning, advice, specialist support and engagement opportunities for young people across Kirklees.

The other members are: Beaumont Street Studios (BSS); Communities United Project (CUP); Lifeline; National Children’s Centre (NCC) and Northorpe Hall.

Through a successful bid into the Governments Youth Sector Development Fund we are now able to develop and extend our services to reach and engage young people presently outside of current provision. The V6 Vision project will initially be funded for 2 years until March 2011.

A number of employment opportunities are now available, based in a range of V6 organisations:
