

Making it Personal

An exciting programme of free training and development for the Voluntary and Community Sector in Kirklees

13 January to 24 February 2010

Helping your organisation to build for a strong and vibrant future

Kirklees
PARTNERSHIP

Featuring -

The Association of Chief Executives of Voluntary Organisations, Directory of Social Change, In Control, new economics foundation - and many more.

Training courses at a glance

13 January	Improving your use of evidence and data, impact awareness and research tools
15 January	Business and strategic planning in a changing environment
19 January	Planning for the future – making it personal - the transition to individual budgets
21 January repeated 22 January	Prove your added value - capture the journey for people who access support
27 January	Budgeting and cash flow forecasting in a fast changing environment
28 January	Developing an enterprising Kirklees - trading models for social enterprise
2 February	Introduction to evidencing outcomes and your impact
3 February	Financial controls and risk management in a fast changing environment
8 February	Organisational change and building for the future
10 February	Working the SMART way... how to identify and use SMART measures
11 February	Building your unit costs in a fast changing environment
23 February	Costing for personalisation – the implications for your organisation
24 February	Developing an enterprising Kirklees - good governance for social enterprises

Mentoring and 1:1 support is also available.

Full course information and booking forms can be found online www.voluntaryactionkirklees.co.uk or by calling 01484 518457. Please book early.