

The Serious Case Review: the impact of Haringey

Applications are invited for a Safeguarding Children Masterclass - Serious Case Reviews: the impact of Haringey

Date: Wednesday 10th March 2010

Time: 9.30am - 12.30pm

Venue: University of Huddersfield room: tbc

Presenters: Graham Badman - Independent Chair, Haringey LSCB and Sarah Peel - Business Manager, Haringey LSCB

Charge: FREE*. Refreshments and Lunch Vouchers provided (*Delegates who do not attend without prior notice/reason will be charged £50)

AUDIENCE: Senior Practitioners and managers from all agencies involved with Safeguarding Children.

SUBJECT: Graham and Sarah will present the current policy context of Serious Case Reviews and will discuss the key messages from the Baby Peter Serious Case Review in Haringey. They will explore the factors that contributed to raise the profile of this case beyond anything seen before. They will invite discussion about the process of serious case reviews and the degree to which the reviews can impact on changes to practice.

Please return application form by post or email to: Doreen Wallace, HW1/22, School of Human & Health Sciences, University of Huddersfield, Queensgate, phone 01484 473490, e-mail d.j.wallace@hud.ac.uk